

Bonn office held the third Japanese-German interpreter training seminar

Lecture by Professor Seifert

Leading Japanese-German interpreters, Miss Kori and Miss Sekikawa (Japanese-German Center Berlin), participated as seminar lecturers. The seminar was attended by successful professional Japanese and German interpreters, Master students of the Japanese-German-English interpretation course at Heidelberg University, and many others. Two professors (including the renowned Japan researcher, Professor Seifert of Heidelberg University) and one statesman also held interesting lectures.

The 3rd Japanese-German interpreter training seminar was held February 7-9, 2014, in Ludwigshafen, Germany.

This seminar has been organized every year since 2011 by the deputy director of Bonn office, Prof. Aizawa. Prof. Aizawa, who is one of the leading researchers in German-Japanese interpretation, started holding this seminar to create a network among interpreters, encourage the sharing of information, as well as to foster dedication to the field.

Professor Ueda (Professor Emeritus, University of Tsukuba) and Professor Aizawa

Third day of the seminar

By holding this unique training seminar, the Bonn office helps not only in promoting academic research regarding interpreting and translation but also supports the training of high qualified interpreters, who are indispensable for the future advancement of cooperation between Japan and Germany.

Reference: 1st and 2nd seminar reports
http://www.germanistik.jp/dolmetschag/blockseminar\(dt\))