

Study Abroad Pre-departure Information Session for Students of the University of Bonn

On July, 4th, 2012, a study abroad pre-departure information session was held at the headquarters of DAAD in Bonn where the University of Tsukuba, European Office, Bonn, is located.

Pict. 1

Information Session 1

Attendees of the information session included students from the University of Bonn preparing for the upcoming exchange (5), exchange students from the University of Tsukuba (2) and officials from the University of Bonn (2). Taking advantage of the European Office, Bonn, the information session was held for the first time. (Pict. 1)

Pict. 2

Information Session 2

Students concentrating on listening to the explanations given about the University of Tsukuba. After hearing the explanations, German students were proactive, asking specifically about the dormitory environment, living cost per month, etc. (Pict. 2)

Pict. 3

Information Session 3

German students having a friendly chat with students from the University of Tsukuba. This information session supported the German students planning on studying abroad in Tsukuba to resolve their anxieties and clear up doubts before their departure. (Pict. 3)